INFORMATION / PRESENTATION ITEMS

Action not required, provided for information purposes only.

I4. RIDE FLAG

- Mr. Udvardy introduced representative from Mark Feltham from RideFlag, who presented to the committee via web conference. The RideFlag app is a smart phone app that helps South Florida Commuter Services match carpoolers in real-time, without the paperwork.
- Mr. Udvardy explained that the new system helps validate how many people are actually carpooling, as the app tracks riders' actual commute. Previous efforts were based on an honor system that was open to more abuse of the program. The program also helps improve preferred parking features.
- Mr. Udvardy stated that they are currently working with FIU and UM and used feedback from these pilots in order to improve the app and plans to share results with the group in the future.
- Mr. Garcia suggested that SFCS use a similar effort as they've used for the Commuter Challenge to promote Dump the Pump Day 2017.

I3. COMMUTER CHALLENGE 2017

- Ms. Crichton requested for digital content in order to promote the Commuter Challenge through their channels. Mr. Garcia shared that he's had to use graphics from other flyers to promote on SFRTA channels.
- Mr. Udvardy shared that campaign is very robust, covering from Ft. Pierce to Key West. Approximately 17 presentations have been made, over 200 companies have signed up to be onboard and a number of cities and partners that have supported the effort. They are using the experience with the app this year to make it better next year.

II. REGIONAL FARE CARD

- Ms. Crichton shared that DTPW has Pay-By-Phone and EASY Pay now receiving a lot of downloads. Customers have been taking advantage of these convenient ways of purchasing their parking and transit fares.
- Mr. Garcia stated that SFRTA is waiting for DTPW to complete their first phase of their system to begin to consider implementing for Tri-Rail.
- Ms. Girard stated that Palm Tran has hired Luminor Consulting Group, who is doing a preliminary study to recommend the best technology to pursue.
- Ms. Silverstein stated that BCT is not currently moving forward with this new fare collection system as they are mainly focused on the MyRide app.

I2. REAL-TIME UPDATES

- Ms. Silverstein stated that BCT is still working on the app and beta testing, with weekly meetings to ensure problems are resolved as quick as possible. Tying in with the real-time initiative is the installation of 46 inch digital displays and solar powered 2-line digital signs to be installed at the Downtown Terminal and Northeast Transit Center.
